

Certified Green Professional (CGP)TM

The Certified Green Professional (CGP)TM, an exclusive designation offered by the National Association of Home Builders, is designed to teach building industry professionals strategies for incorporating green building principles into homes using cost-effective and affordable options.

The University of Housing of the Upstate is offering two courses in early June that when completed, will earn the CGPTM designation. Individuals can also sign up for either course to simply grow as a professional and learn more about green building practices or business management for building professionals.
